A. B. Snow came in this morning to jack up the editor on general principles. He kicks on not being in the list of the original settlers of the town, when he really built the first house. And we took that kick, because it was due. Then he vowed because the editor didn't sit in the bald head ed row at the show instead of being back in the crowd reserved for decent people. Then he wanted to muss because the town wasn't growing fast enough, but we turned the tables on him and kicked him outen o' doors for his k habit.
